

How our safety policy changed from

"as safe as possible"

to

"as safe as necessary"

- Risky Play (2017)

As safe as necessary

We aim for an environment that is as safe as necessary so that every child has as many opportunities as possible to develop.

We mean an environment in which we cleverly deal with risks so that children can push their limits and have plenty of opportunities to play.
